It has the honor to recommend that ~ permission be kindly
granted for the removal
of the utcharai devaru
of Gopalakrishnaswamy
from the temple on the top of the Chitaldung
hill to the temple of
Lakshmi Narayana =
= Dargah at the Sankai
gate of the town.

The former temple
is a Muzrai inski = = kshetra, but is so ~
situated as not to be easily got at. It
is not consequently
efficiently

efficiently guarded.
The utchava devanu is
therefore kept for
the greater part of
the year in the house
of the 'Auchak' and is
thus deprived of the regular daily ~
worship to which it is entitled. Now ~
does the Car festival
on the top of the hill
attract such a large Concourse of people
as would gladly ~
attend it if the place
^{were} more easily accessible.

In these circumstances,
it is desirable that
the utchava devanu,
in question should
be located in a ~
better place than ~
either the temple on the hill top, or the ~
house of the 'Auchak'.
The other temple above
referred to is a good

and

And spacious one ~
And by reason of its convenient ~
situation, is largely
resorted to by people.
Hence this proposal.

2. The removal above
recommended while securing regular ~
daily puja for the
"utthara devanu", ~
would entail ~
additional labour
on the "Kuchak", who
will hereafter have
to work in two places,
instead of in only one as hitherto. I ~ would therefore, ~
suggest that a daily
allowance of one ~
peer of rice with ~
condiments be kindly
sanctioned. ^{Q. for Padiwara Q.} The Kuchak
of both the temples ~
being the same, the
allowance proposed,
while directly ~
benefiting the paid
Gopalasanny.
ex officio

Gopalasamy 'utchara
devanu, ^{would also} secure the ~ proper worship of
the other deity which
though not a Mudrai
institution, is held
in great veneration
by the class of ~
people for whom
it is intended.
